

edible

SACRAMENTO™

SPRING 2010

IN THIS ISSUE:

THE FOOD & CLIMATE CHANGE CONNECTION
EXTRA VIRGIN OLIVE OIL:
CAN CALIFORNIA COMPETE?

PLUS: GRAS

BACK of the
HOUSE:
HAWKS

Celebrating the Culinary Heritage of Sacramento Valley MEMBER OF EDIBLE COMMUNITIES

back of the house:

Hawks

TEXT AND PHOTOS BY RYAN DONAHUE

Hawks Restaurant
Granite Bay, CA
916.791.6221

If it's your desire to sample Sacramento's culinary top-tier, your travels will no doubt bring you 20 minutes out of Sac proper to Granite Bay. Hawks is flawless and detail-driven from the front to the back of the house. Owners and chefs Molly Hawks and Michael Fagnoni drip with experience beyond their years and oversee a cadre of in-house artisan endeavors like hand rolled pasta, perfectly pulled espresso, and charcuterie. If timed correctly, their Granite Bay location hosts a spectacular sunset through their south west facing rear windows overlooking the Quarry Ponds.

